

Section 1

Control Laughter

Discussion

//center I am going to cook noodles for lunch.

We just imagine pasta when you say noodles.

I just wonder about the contents(ingredients) of the dish.

What are you going to put in your dish?

I need some minced meat, Japanese paste(sos) and lettuce.

Do you cook regularly?

Because my daughter likes my cooking, I have to cook for her.

What do you mean by take away food?

Is this food really healthy?

Yes, it is.

Are there many obese people in Singapore?

No, there aren't.

Singapore has relatively small population.

Grammar

Third Person Singular

Person that is not being directly involved into conversation.
In present simple, but only in positive statements add letter -s to the verb.

To be

When you want to say that something exists or it's true, please don't use verb "have" use verb "to be".

There have many fat people in China.(wrong)

There are many fat people in China.(right)

What was this conversation about?

This conversation was about Leo. He thinks he will get fired.

What was Leo's mistake?

He laughed at his boss. His boss was furious. Leo just laughed uncontrollably.

It was an awkward situation.

What would you do in this situation?

Vocabulary

New words

- 1 bond(verb, noun)
- 2 chuckle(verb)
- 3 tickle(verb)
- 4 uncontrollable(adj.)
- 5 breathe(verb)
- 6 furious(adj.)
- 7 awkward(adj.)
- 8 funny(adj.)

Useful words

- 1 land(verb):to position itself on the ground, on something solid after a flight.
- 2 minced meat(noun):meat that has but cut or shredded into tiny pieces.
- 3 lecture(noun):lesson that is delivered by a professor to a large audience.

Pronunciation

Words

- ① minced /minst/
- ② mystery /mi-ste-ri/
- ③ mysterious /mi-sti-ri-jus/
- ④ chuckle /cha-kl/