

What's the story about?

How are you doing today?
I feel great.

What did you do today?
I studied math.

Did you anything else?
I had lunch. My was instant noodles.

Why did you eat instant noodles, that doesn't sound healthy?
Our cantine is closed and I could eat only something simple.

Why is the cantine closed?
Because I went there too late.

Why?
Because I got up late.

Why did you get up late?
I didn't feel good this morning.

How do you feel now?
It's a little better.

How is the weather today?
It's cloudy.

What is the temperature?
It's about 24 degrees Celsius.

I think this temperature is comfortable.

In Serbia, it's about 35 degrees Celsius.

What are you plans for the rest of the day?
I will go shopping with my friend after this class.

What do you want to buy?
I don't have things to buy.

Why do you go?
I just want to take a walk.

They are somewhere out in nature, camping.

Do you like camping?
Yes, I do. I haven't tried it.

How do you know you like it?
I watched a story about camping on TV.

They are telling stories about their work or school.

Because these are the topics that I discuss with my friends.

Please provide more elaborate answers, because if I have to ask many subquestions, it will take a lot of time, in this class, I will speak much more than you.

Vocabulary

Temperature

To express temperature you need to use the word “degree” followed by the name of measuring unit for temperature, which is Celsius(Centigrade).

Be aware that degree is a countable noun, it has plural and singular form.

1 degree

2 degrees

It's 18 degrees Celsius.

Useful words

1. window shopping(noun):the activity of visiting the stores without an intention of buying anything.
2. television(noun):TV
3. made-up(verb, adj.):imaginary, not real(not existing in reality). e.g. He probably made up this story.
4. throne(noun):a chair on which a king or ruler sits.
5. turn out(phrasal verb):to happen, to play out, occur. e.g. It turned out that he is her father.

Grammar

Present Tense - negative statements

When you make a negative statement in present simple make sure you use “don't/doesn't” don't use haven't.

She doesn't have a mother.

Past tense

In English language we use verbs to tell the action but also to tell the time.

I work as a teacher.(true now)

I worked as a teacher.(not true anymore)