Discussion

My friend works as a sales person at Lishuo.

She promised me that she will give me free lessons.

Why have your lessons expired?

Two months ago it was easy to book lessons. But now booking system changed a lot, it's hard for me book the lessons.

I cannot get used to the new system.

What are your plans for today?

I am on my summer holiday. I will just have a rest.

I don't have a specific plan.

Isn't it a pity not to have a plan?

Normally I would take care of my son. She is in visit, he visited his grandparents.

People will find their way to get their kids to attend some extracurricular classes.

Government thinks that it's unfair to pay for extracurricular classes.

The government uses the simplest way to solve the problem.

It still goes on.

Parents disagree about this idea of fairness?

How should it be done?

People should have choice.

I don't know if you have similar saying in the western countries.

The government cut down the number of students who are supposed to attend a high school.

A lot of work is being taken and will be taken by machines, especially jobs that don't require high education.

Do you like trailers?

I never used a trailer before.

Do you have any kind of opinion about them?

They are very convenient.

Would you like to have a holiday in a trailer?

I would like to have a day or two day vacation.

RV is an independent vehicle, because it has its own engine and controls for steering, etc.

There is a supermarket. (I couldn't use "the" because you don't know about which market I am talking about.) The supermarket is very big.

definite(the) indefinite(a/an)
