

Depression

Discussion

How are you doing today?

I am doing great.

What did you do today? (Past Simple Tense)

I had a class before because I am a student.

What kind of student are you?

My major is special education.

Why did you choose this career path?

I want to help them.

Isn't this kind of education more challenging?

Yes, it is.

It's a little depressing.

You must have had someone in your life who was or is disabled?

No, I didn't.

What made you so passionate about these children?

I have gone to an agency, I have seen them. I decided to help them.

Do you have any hobbies?

I like dancing and listening to music.

What kind of dancing do you do?

I do jazz dancing.

You are supposed to dance with a partner?

No, I am not.

I learned sport dancing.

There are two kinds of sport dances: latin and ballroom(standard). There are five latin dances: cha-cha, rumba, samba, jive, paso double.

There are five ballroom dances: waltz, viennese waltz, tango, slow fox, quick step.

Try not to give negative answers, because they are not very informative.

What is your job?

I am not a nurse.

Grammar

Past Tense

What is the difference between these two sentences?

I am a teacher. (true)
I was a teacher. (not true)