

A Weekend In The City

Discussion

My father has a house in the countryside.

I never smoked in front of him. He doesn't know that I smoke cigars.

He doesn't allow me to smoke.

I was a trouble maker.

My family didn't like me. They thought I am a big problem.

Why didn't you come back home?

We broke a long time ago.

I am a fan of science-fiction.

I like Lord of the Rings.

New Zealand is his country of birth.

He graduated from Cambridge university.

I know about him.(It's still true, I still have the information.)

I knew about him.(It's not anymore, it was true in the past.)

I am a teacher I was a teacher

I know him.(I am his friend)

Vocabulary

Useful word

1. humidior(noun):a box that can hold moisture
2. envy(verb)

Grammar

Proper nouns

Names of people, places, companies, etc. are proper nouns. Never use definite or indefinite(a/an) articles with proper nouns.

a Marko(this is a name-proper noun, don't use article "a")

Marko

We were a Marko's students.(incorrect)

We were Marko's students.(correct)

Adjectives

ING adjectives they describe something that causes feelings.
John is boring.(John makes other bored.)

John is bored.(John has nothing to do, he feels this way.)