

Discussion

What did you do before this class? I enjoyed a cup of tea with my colleagues.

What are your plans for the rest of the day?

I plan to have a dinner with my family.

I want to eat noodles, my mom will make them.

Does your mom always cook for you?

She helps me to raise my kids.

Do you often eat out?

I don't eat out often, I usually eat in cafeteria.

Cafeteria food is not always delicious, right?

Yes, it's not.

Sometimes I eat out.

Does your mom cook well?

She doesn't cook very well generally, but she cooks good dumplings and noodles.

Are you interested in learning to cook by yourself?

I don't like cooking.

It takes a lot of time to prepare food for cooking.

What is a hero?

Heroes change people's life or inspire people.

Who is in your opinion a hero?

Some politicians and scientists.

Many people in the world blame Putin for the wars.

How about scientists? It's a Chinese scientist who saved many people from hunger.

Do you have your personal hero?

I admire my president the most.

He made many good decisions, I want to be smart like him.

What happened in this story?

This story is about stranger's help.

What happened, what occurred?

A person went to a restaurant, after dinner he planned to pay, but he didn't bring enough money, his friend didn't reply to his call.

The waiter gave him some money.

Vocabulary

Useful words

1. college(noun):a kind of school
2. colleague(noun):a coworker, person you work with.
3. cafeteria/cantine(noun):a place where workers or students eat food.