

The 7 Ancient Wonders Of The World

Discussion

How are you doing today?
I am fine.

What did you do today?
I did some usual work.

I wrote some articles.

What are your plans for the rest of the day?
I plan to look through the material that I need to read to make a plan about going to a field.

How is the weather today?
It's sunny today.

Why, you just said that you are not very busy?
My job is not that flexible, it doesn't allow me to go out.

I just want to be relaxed.

What's the temperature?
It's 33 degrees Celsius.

What is attractive about it?
It all happened in the past. Past shows what will happen in the future.

We are not in good economy. We can use the examples from history to better understand our current situation.

Have you visited any ancient ruins?
I have visited Rome and seen Colosseum.

What was the purpose of Colosseum?
It was actually a stadium.

Do you have any historical sites in your city?
I live in Shenzhen which was a village, so there are no historical sites.

Try to express yourself directly and precisely. Express yourself in sentences.

Vocabulary

Temperature

To express temperature make sure you use the word "degree" follow by the name of measuring unit, Celsius(Centigrade).

Be aware that degree is a countable noun, it has plural and singular form.

1 degree Celsius 20 degrees Celsius

1 teacher

30 teachers

Useful words

1. innmurable(adj.):too many to count.
2. antiquity(noun):ancient period :something that is very old, ancient.
e.g. This coin is antiquity.
3. classical antiquity(noun):a period from 8th to 6th century BC.
4. relaxed(adj.)
5. relax(verb)
6. economics(noun):the study that studies economy
7. economy(noun):the particular situation in terms of services provided, products made, cashflow, etc.

Pronunciation

The

When “the” is followed by a vowel sound(a,e,i,o,u) you need to pronounce /thi/, not /th/.

the/thi/	the/th/
the end	the teacher
the air	the student
the orange	the chair
the hour	the university(a university)