

Discussion

How is the weather today?

It's cloudy.

What is the temperature?

It's about 28 degrees Centigrade.

What are your plans for today?

I am going to read books, do some exercises, learn some new English words and I will play basketball with my friends this afternoon.

How would you describe your best friend?

He is a very kind and friendly person, he is funny and always makes me laugh. He isn't good at playing basketball, so I teach him.

I am a little shy so I am not good at communicating with strangers.

What was this conversation about?

What is the point?

Why do we do this?

Vocabulary

Useful words

1. illustrate(verb):to show or explain. :to make a picture or drawing.
2. head(verb):to go to a certain direction. e.g. I am heading to Beijing.

Temperature

To express temperature use the word "degree" followed by the name of measuring unit, Celsius(Centigrade).

Keep in mind that the word "degree" is a countable noun, so it has plural and singular form.

1 degree

20 degrees