

Everyday Annoyance

Discussion

What did you do today?

I just worked.

My colleague has a part-time job.

How can you choose to do part-time job instead of your full-time job?

There are many cameran men in my company.

Why didn't you bring your laptop?

Wouldn't that be more convenient for you?

You only have a desktop?

Imagine that I have a part-time job, and I send someone else to teach you, while

I am doing my part-time job.

This is not really acceptable in the most cases.

The system chose for me.

What makes good customer service?

Customer service agents need to be polite and caring.

My friend is not at his home.

I am alone at my friend's home.

He fell in love with his girlfriend and he went out.

He lives in a rented home.

His home is near the train station.

There are many people from different cities and provinces.

I am on fourth floor.

There is a make up salon on the third floor.

Why don't you go there?

Because it's not too far to my company.

I didn't go to the third floor.

I took an elevator.

Have you ever been to Thailand?

Yes, I have.

Did you visit your parents last month?

No, I didn't.

This is what I am confused about.

Do you know my name?(now)

Did you know my name yesterday, when we met?(in the past)

Use past when talking about past, use present when talking present, and future when talking about future.

My teacher didn't remind me.

My teacher taught me.

We talk a lot about past in our everyday conversations.

When answering questions always use the same verb tense that is used in the question.

Grammar

Past Simple

Positive statements you need to conjugate the verb.

I worked.

When you make negative statements, you don't conjugate the main verb but the auxiliary verb.

I did not eat apples. (do - did)

Same for the questions, you conjugate the auxiliary verb?

Do you like apples?

Did you like apples?(do - did)

Questions

did - past simple

do - present simple

Negative Statements

Negative statements are made based on their tense.

Past Simple - didn't - when you want to say that something didn't happen in the past.

Present Simple - don't/doesn't

Present Perfect - haven't/hasn't

To Be

When you want to say that something exists or it is true, you must use the verb "to be", not "have" like in Chinese.

There is a big traffic.

There are many people in China.

There is a huge population in China.
