

Perfirming Arts Broadway

Discussion

How are you doing today?

I took my kids to my home town last week.

What did you do before this class?

In the morning I woke up late, ate breakfast and played with my children.

Why did you wake up late?

Because I slept late last night.

What is your job?

I am a housewife.

What were you before you became a housewife?

I was a nurse.

Why did you decide to become a housewife?

Because I need to take care of my children.

Do you have any hobbies?

Yes, I do. I have a lot of hobbies.

How often do you visit your parents?

I visit my parents once a year.

That is so rare. I will stay with them for two weeks.

I have bought some electric devices.

Why do you want to improve your English?

When my kids get older, they will study abroad, so I want to visit or live with them.

For how long have you been studying?

I have been studying for several years but not frequently.

Broadway is a very popular street in New York, the USA.

Do you like theaters?

No, I don't.

Why did you select this topic?

My teacher chose the topic.

music musical

What was this conversation about?

Leah has had an audition on a broadway and she got a part.

Vocabulary

Useful words

1. murder(noun):the criminal act of killing someone.
2. accompany(verb):to spend time with someone. e.g. I accompany my children. (!don't use "WITH")
3. electric(adj.)
4. electricity(noun)
5. icon(noun)

New words

1. audition(noun):process of applying and at the same time performing for a role in a play, movie, commercial, etc. e.g. There are many auditions in New York every day.
2. musical(noun):a performance in a theater or a movie that involves a lot of singing. e.g. Many people like musicals.
3. theater play(noun) e.g. like a famous theater player, she dances latin dances.
4. iconic(adj.):something or someone that represents something e.g. Michael Jackson was an iconic pop singer or star.
5. on stage(adv.) e.g. Performers are always nervous on a stage.
6. backstage(noun) e.g. Workers in backstage are really important.

Grammar

Past tense

Verbs are the words that do two things: tell us about the action but also, tell us about the time.

eat
ate

Please don't ignore the time component(tense) of the verbs, it's very important in English.

Pronunciation

Words

1. bulb /balb/
2. iconic /aj-konik/